

""Twitter handle (and profile name): civic_spirit (CivicSpirit)

Twitter description: We support schools + teachers from faith traditions in (1) fostering civic belonging, knowledge & responsibility; (2) creating relationships across differences.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "Civic Spirit educates, inspires, and empowers schools across faith traditions to enhance civic belonging and responsibility in their student, faculty, and parent communities."

Scraped text from their home page of their website: Titles: Civic Spirit - Civic Spirit

Headings: Civic Spirit Clubs; We the Educators; Educators Cohort; Methodology; Team; Schools; Connect with us; civicspirit; the; problem; Deteriorating Faith; Destructive Polarization; Diminishing Communities; the; solution; Comprehensive Civics Education

Paragraphs: Featured Program; Designing solutions to local issues; Featured Program; A civic learning series for educators; Featured Program; Design transformative civic learning for the next generation; We have developed a unique pedagogy for civic education that integrates the study of American texts and traditions with the social-emotional development of students and the practice of urgent civic skills.; We are passionate professionals with expertise in American history, theology, classroom pedagogy, leadership development, program design, and community health--all dedicated to civic well-being.; The Civic Spirit network is comprised of schools from a diverse range of religious, economic, racial, and cultural backgrounds, creating an inviting environment for building bridges and problem-solving.; We partner with educators and schools rooted in a faith tradition to strengthen their capacity for comprehensive and non-partisan civic education.; The best of Civic Spirit, in your inbox. Sign up for our newsletter!; Civic Spirit encourages multifait work and understanding, giving students whose lives are encompassed by their own communities the chance to meet, talk to, and work with people in entirely different communities.; Jewish Standard; "Embodying Civic Spirit"; Civic Spirit is working hard to restore faith in our democratic republic within communities and schools rooted in a faith tradition.; Bridge Alliance; It was one of the best professional development programs that I have ever been to. And I have been teaching for decades.; Linda Litland, Joseph Kushner Hebrew Academy; Educators Cohort 4 Fellow; Civic Spirit is dedicated to providing quality professional development oportunties and learning experiences for educators and students in faith-based schools.; View our offerings and find a Civic Spirit program that is right for you.; We partner with educators and schools rooted in a faith tradition to strengthen their capacity for comprehensive and non-partisan civic education.; Fewer than 20% of Americans trust the government.; 81% of Republicans and Democrats say they have an unfavorable view of the other.; In the past 25 years, attendance at civic meetings has dropped by 58%.; will shepherd 55 million individuals coming of age in America into the gifts and responsibilities of citizenship.; "Without the vigilance and sustained action of citizens, American democracy can easily become an empty promise."; "I want the students to understand what their American citizenship means, beyond their name on a passport."; Students were encouraged to find similarities between their communities and backgrounds, different as they may be.; Civic Spirit is working hard to restore faith in our democratic republic within communities and schools rooted in faith traditions.; Civic Spirit is part of a growing renaissance in civic education in America. We work specifically with communities and schools rooted in faith traditions.; Sign Up for more; Stay updated on teacher seminars, students events, and classroom resources.; Civic Spirit is fiscally sponsored by Hillel International.; 52 Vanderbilt Avenue, Suite 1410, New York, New York 10017; (C) 2023 Civic Spirit

Scraped text from their about page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Scraped text from their mission page of their website: Titles: Approach - Civic Spirit

Headings: Our Mission; What We Do; CivicBelonging; DemocraticFluency; Civic Skills; the; problem; Deteriorating Faith; Destructive Polarization; Diminishing Communities; the; solution; Comprehensive Civics Education; Our Vision; Why We Work with Faith Communities; Because itis needed.; Because faith anchors society.; Because this isour calling.

Paragraphs: Civic Spirit educates, inspires, and empowers schools across faith traditions to enhance civic belonging, knowledge, and responsibility in their student and faculty communities.; We believe in a multidisciplinary approach to fostering informed and adept members of American society. Through our years of experience working with schools from diverse communities, we have identified three core pillars for designing long-lasting, effective, and meaningful civic learning for all.; By providing educators with enriching and academically rigorous professional development, pedagogical coaching, and discourse training, we support the next generation in gaining the information, skills, and sensibility to become beholden participants in the civic life of their community and the political life of our democracy.; Finding one's place in the American story and fostering connection and a sense of civic responsibility for community and our self-governing democracy.; Knowledge of America's history, political origins, and evolving systems through study of founding documents, primary sources, literature, religion, and the arts.; Competency in respectful discussion, media literacy, design thinking, collaboration, problem solving, and authentic relationship-building across differences.; Co-designed with middle and high school educators and school administrators, we have created a list of 15 Shared Aims that align with our three-pillared approach to civic education. These aims are meant to be a guide for designing and implementing engaging, content-rich civic learning in the classroom and beyond.; Fewer than 20% of Americans trust the government.; 81% of Republicans and

Democrats say they have an unfavorable view of the other.; In the past 25 years, attendance at civic meetings has dropped by 58%.; will shepherd 55 million individuals coming of age in America into the gifts and responsibilities of citizenship.; We envision a country in which every student reaches voting age with conviction and skills to better the civic life of our democracy.; Civic Spirit builds civic opportunities within and between faith communities. Here is why.; Over 4 million students in America attend schools rooted in a faith tradition; these communities are in need of comprehensive civic education to navigate the complex intersection of religion and civic life.; For over 50% of Americans, faith tradition informs communal behavior and social infrastructure, while providing a fertile and critical place where healthy democratic habits can be practiced and formed.; Our team of historians, political scientists, religious leaders, and educators are uniquely capable of and passionate about understanding the benefits and challenges of working at this essential crossroad.; Sign Up for more; Stay updated on teacher seminars, students events, and classroom resources.; Civic Spirit is fiscally sponsored by Hillel International.; 52 Vanderbilt Avenue, Suite 1410, New York, New York 10017; (C) 2023 Civic Spirit

Scraped text from their history page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Summaries of Links: Based solely on the provided information, it can be inferred that Civic Spirit is an organization dedicated to fostering civic engagement and educating individuals, particularly youth, about their civic responsibilities. The organization appears to have a strong focus on promoting active citizenship and encouraging participation in the democratic process. The mention of "civic spirit schools" suggests that they may have educational programs or initiatives aimed at instilling civic values and knowledge in students. The organization's website includes sections on "approach," "work," "events," and "insights," indicating that they engage in various activities and initiatives to promote civic engagement. The presence of social media links and contact information suggests that they actively engage with the public and seek to connect with individuals interested in their work. Overall, the provided information suggests that Civic Spirit is an organization committed to promoting civic responsibility and educating individuals about their role in society."""