

""Twitter handle (and profile name): UChiPolitics (UChicago Institute of Politics (IOP))

Twitter description: An extracurricular program at @UChicago designed to spark a passion for politics & public service. RT % endorsement.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "The Institute of Politics, a nonpartisan, extracurricular organization at the University of Chicago, aims to inspire and cultivate the next generation of political and public service leaders."

Scraped text from their home page of their website: Titles: Institute of Politics - Inspiring thought, Empowering action.

Headings: Upcoming Event; Institute of Politics; About; Get Involved; Internships & Careers; Pritzker Fellows; Speaker Series; Share; ; Quick Links; Civic Engagement; UChiVotes; Student-Led Programs; Speaker Series; Internships and Careers; Pritzker Fellows; The Axe Files; Ep. 562 -Cassidy Hutchinson; Find More Episodes and Subscribe at; Stay Informed

Paragraphs: Meet the Winter-Spring Fellows!; Inspiring thought. Empowering action.; Providing pathways for students to explore public service, the democratic process, journalism, and the challenges that permeate public policy. Through workshops, treks, and student-led leadership programs, students develop the tools to become leaders, advocates, and public servants.; UChiVotes is a student-led, nonpartisan voter engagement initiative created to boost voter turnout and engagement on the UChicago campus.; Through a diverse slate of student-led programs, students develop the tools to become leaders, advocates, and public servants.; Each year, the Institute of Politics holds hundreds of events exploring the most pressing issues of our time and providing students and the public direct contact with guests spanning a vast spectrum of ideological, professional, and geographical backgrounds.; The Institute of Politics provides 300 fully-funded internships each year across the country and around the world. These opportunities offer our students the chance to do meaningful, often life-changing work in a wide variety of fields related to politics and public service.; The Pritzker Fellows Program brings to campus practitioners in politics, government, journalism, advocacy, and the nonprofit and policy worlds to share lessons from their distinguished careers. Through weekly seminars and office hours, our Fellows offer students invaluable insights and mentorship.; IOP Founding Director David Axelrod brings you The Axe Files, a series of revealing interviews with key figures in the political world. Go beyond the soundbites and get to know some of the most interesting players in politics.; Latest Episode; Dec 21, 2023_x000D_

x000D

61 mins; Before June 28th 2022, few Americans knew of Cassidy Hutchinson, the young former White House staffer. But that all changed that day when she appeared as a surprise star witness at a hastily called televised hearing of the House Select Committee on January 6th to share what she knew about the events leading up to and following the storming of Capitol Hill by a pro-Trump mob. But her own life story is worth hearing and compellingly told in her new book "Enough". Cassidy joined David to talk about her book, her time in the White House, her relationship with the Republican Party, and her life now.; Our emails are the best way to keep up-to-date on all of our events and programming.; UChicago Institute of Politics 5707 S Woodlawn Ave Chicago, IL 60637; politics@uchicago.edu 773.834.4671; For press inquiries contact Koran Addo at addok@uchicago.edu; For David Axelrod contact Saralena Barry at saralena@axelrodstrategies.com; For The Axe Files podcast inquiries contact Hannah McDonald at hannah@axelrodstrategies.com; IOP Room Reservation Policy; Copyright 2021 The University of Chicago

Scraped text from their about page of their website: Titles: Our Team - Institute of Politics

Headings: Institute of Politics; About; Get Involved; Internships & Careers; Pritzker Fellows; Speaker Series; Share; Share; Our Team; Jump to; Staff; Heidi Heitkamp; Zeenat Rahman; Koran Addo; Emma Deutsch; Joel Ebert; Ashley Jorn; Laresa Lund; Katrina Mertens; Sarah Palmisciano; Purvi Patel; Gabe Pimsler; Dani Salazar; Mark Schauerte; Jennifer Steinhauer; Matilda Thornton Clark; Lindsey Winters; Careers at the IOP; Have Questions?; Stay Informed

Paragraphs: Our team is committed to fostering a culture of free expression, civil discourse and a spirit of public service.; Institute Director; Heidi was the first woman elected to the U.S. Senate from North Dakota. She is Co-Founder and Chair of the One Country Project. She has served as the Director of the IOP since January 2023.; Executive Director; Zeenat manages day-to-day operations at the IOP, overseeing budget development, financial operations, human resources, fundraising, and program execution. She works closely with the director to establish and implement the overall strategy and goals of the Institute, including short- and long-term planning and developing new initiatives.; Zeenat comes to the IOP with more than two decades of experience in the public and social sectors working to strengthen democracy and civil society. She previously served at the U.S. State Department and U.S. Agency for International Development.; Director of Communications; Koran works to support all IOP programming through external communications and media relations. He works directly with students on projects centered on voter registration and journalism. Before joining the IOP, Koran was communications director for the St. Louis Mayor's Office and worked as a political and education reporter at the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, The Advocate and other publications.; ; Logistics Coordinator; Emma helps to produce and oversee IOP's Speaker Series, including strategic planning, speaker and attendee hospitality, and working closely with students at each event. Emma holds a bachelor's degree from Bard College in New York state, where she also worked in fine dining, event management, and program administration.; Assistant Director, Production; Joel manages production of the Speaker Series, ranging from event ideation and guest relations to securing venues. He works closely with dozens of students to produce events. Prior to joining the IOP, Joel spent nearly a decade reporting on state government in South Dakota, West Virginia, Tennessee, and Illinois. He is author of Welcome to Capitol Hill: 50 Years of Scandal in Tennessee Politics.; Deputy Director, Fellows Program; Ashley manages the daily operations of the Pritzker Fellows program. She also oversees the student volunteers who are part of the Fellows Ambassador program. Before joining the IOP in 2015, Ashley worked in education as a teacher, tutor, and coach.; Program Coordinator, Career Development; Laresa coordinates 300+ annual IOP internships in our summer and academic year portfolios with the Career Development team. She also runs career workshops and provides student career advising throughout the year. She previously worked in higher education at Indiana University and in the conservation field through AmeriCorps and the Student Conservation Association.; Director of Operations and Budget; Katrina oversees all budget, human resources, and facilities matters for the IOP. Katrina has been a career public servant, working at the Illinois State Board of Education and in the narcotics unit of the Baltimore City State's Attorney's Office before joining the IOP in 2012. Katrina has a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and urban studies from the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee and a Master's degree in counseling from Roosevelt University in Chicago.; ; Program Coordinator, Pritzker Fellows & Speaker Series; Sarah aids both the Pritzker Fellows Program and the Speaker Series in logistics, event coordination, and general management. Before joining the IOP, Sarah graduated from Hobart and William Smith Colleges where she was active in local voter education and registration efforts.; Director, Civic and Campus Engagement; Purvi creates civic engagement student experiences and leads the advising and support for several student-led groups at the IOP. Prior to joining the IOP, she worked as an administrator in diversity and student life at Washington University in St. Louis, Loyola University Maryland, and Oberlin College.; Content & Digital Communications Specialist; Gabe manages key IOP outreach resources, including the newsletter, social media and email marketing. He elevates the student experience at the IOP by capturing and sharing the small and large moments that happen across the institute. Before coming to the IOP, Gabe worked in government relations in Washington, D.C., and was a Fulbright fellow in Ukraine.; Multimedia Specialist; You'll see Dani taking photos and videos at most of our events. They are also responsible for designing graphics and creating multimedia content for the IOP's social media. Before coming to Chicago, they worked as a videographer in Florida, where they were also involved in community organizing.; Director, Career Development; Mark works to place 300 students each year in internships nationwide and runs career workshops to teach students how to prepare for jobs in public service. He previously served as chief of staff to Rep. Raja Krishnamoorthi, D-IL. Mark is an attorney and practiced law in Chicago in addition to working as a journalist for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and Chicago Lawyer magazine.; Senior Director, Speaker Series and Pritzker Fellows; Jennifer programs our large public events and assembles a cohort of Pritzker Fellows each quarter, drawing from a broad array of political figures, activists, journalists and policy experts. Previously, Jennifer was a longtime reporter at The New York Times and has written two cookbooks, a novel and a chronicle of the first year of the largest female Congressional class.; Assistant Director, Civic and Student Engagement; Matilda, a Libra, works on the IOP's Civic Engagement team. She advises our student groups, the Student Advisory Board, supports civic engagement treks and programs, and oversees the campus's voter engagement strategy. Before joining the IOP, Matilda was an organizing director for the Student Public Interest Research Groups, where she trained college students to run public interest and environmental campaigns in their communities.; Executive Assistant; Lindsey is a member of the IOP's executive team and provides administrative support for the institute's director and executive director. Prior to joining the IOP, Lindsey worked for Cook County as an office manager for the Cook County Board of Commissioners 10th District.; In all job openings, we seek a diverse pool of applicants who wish to join a vibrant, mission-driven organization. The IOP encourages a diversity of perspectives, experiences, and ideas to engage with students, stakeholders, and the broader community.; Logistics Coordinator; Reporting to the Senior Director, Speaker Series & Pritzker Fellows Programs, the Logistics Coordinator will work closely with the IOP's Assistant Director of Production to support managing event logistics, developing timelines for planning and day-of-event activities, providing operational support for a series of events, or planning and executing a full spectrum of logistics (e.g., facility selection, menu planning, transportation arrangements, and audio/visual equipment) for Speaker Series events, as needed.; Internal UChicago Applicants apply online via Workday.; ; Our emails are the best way to keep up-to-date on all of our events and programming.; UChicago Institute of Politics 5707 S Woodlawn Ave Chicago, IL 60637; politics@uchicago.edu 773.834.4671; For press inquiries contact Koran Addo at addok@uchicago.edu; For David Axelrod contact Saralena Barry at saralena@axelrodstrategies.com; For The Axe Files podcast inquiries contact Hannah McDonald at hannah@axelrodstrategies.com; IOP Room Reservation Policy; Copyright 2021 The University of Chicago

Scraped text from their mission page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Scraped text from their history page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Summaries of Links: Based on the provided information, it is evident that this organization is heavily involved in the realm of politics and public policy. The presence of links to political science departments, policy challenges, internships, and career opportunities in the field suggests a focus on educating and empowering individuals to engage in political discourse and decision-making. The organization's website also includes sections on student involvement, upcoming events, and speaker series, indicating a commitment to fostering a vibrant intellectual community and facilitating dialogue on political issues.

Additionally, the mention of donations and support implies that the organization relies on external funding, potentially from individuals, institutions, or corporations interested in advancing political discourse and research."""