Twitter description: We pursue inclusive freedom by promoting social justice for all, building on the principles of the Underground Railroad.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "Opened in 2004, the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center's mission is to reveal stories of freedom's heroes, from the era of the Underground Railroad to contemporary times, challenging and inspiring everyone to take courageous steps of freedom today. A history museum with more than 100,000 visitors annually, it serves to inspire modern abolition through connecting the lessons of the Underground Railroad with today's freedom fighters. The center is also a convener of dialogue on freedom and human rights. "
