Twitter description: Inspire2Vote is committed to engaging high school students in our democracy support from Project High Hopes, a 501(c)3 operating foundation

Description of the organization from a third party source: "Inspire2Vote supports nonpartisan efforts to promote voter registration among high school students. Inspire2Vote is a program of Project High Hopes, a 501(c)3 operating foundation which engages in innovative programs in the areas of civic responsibility. Our mission is to transform young leader's inspiration into action that improves our communities and strengthens our democracy. We support high schools in planning and conducting student peer-to-peer voter registration activities and guide them to engage them with elected officials"
