

""Twitter handle (and profile name): CL_StL (Cultural Leadership)

Twitter description: Cultural Leadership teaches St. Louis (Missouri) high-school students to be change agents, social justice activists, and troublemakers of the best kind.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "Cultural Leadership is a youth educational and leadership development organisation that exists to develop a generation of socially aware, culturally conscious youth leaders. They train diverse local middle and high school students in the St. Louis region to become 'trouble makers of the best kind' by encouraging their curiosity, courage and passion for social justice and equality."

Scraped text from their home page of their website: Titles: Home | LEAD STL | St. Louis MO USA

Headings: Leadership; Empathy; Advocacy; Diversity

Paragraphs: HOME; ABOUT; PROGRAMS; COMMUNITY; SUPPORT; APPLY; CONTACT; ALUMNI; More; REGISTER FOR THE ST. LOUIS ADVOCACY WORKSHOP TODAY!; Our curricula fosters social and emotional learning while training participants to lean into challenging conversations surrounding racism, antisemitism, Islamophobia and many other forms of inequity and injustice. We provide tools necessary to create systemic change, promising a brighter future for our region.; As we celebrate our significant growth-including serving ten times the number of students compared to our early years-we are thrilled to announce our rebrand as LEAD STL. This new name embodies our unwavering commitment to Leadership, Empathy, Advocacy, and Diversity, while marking an exciting evolution in our mission. LEAD STL is a trailblazing non-profit organization dedicated to igniting transformative social change in the greater Saint Louis area. With a special focus on the Black and Jewish experiences, we commit to dismantling systemic injustices through immersive learning and empathy building.; ; Join us in driving systemic change, healing communities and LEADING the way to a brighter, more inclusive tomorrow.; Our commitment to social justice and equity extends far beyond the walls of our organization; it is deeply rooted in an active, ongoing collaboration with the community we serve. We recognize that the most impactful change arises from ground-level activism, facilitated by direct engagement with local schools, organizations, and individuals. Through partnerships, workshops, and immersive learning experiences, we aim to bring about a collective shift in understanding and action. This community-centric approach ensures that our programs are not just tailored to the needs of the community, but are also powered by the very people striving for change. It is this symbiotic relationship that amplifies our impact, allowing us to foster leadership, build cultural understanding, and enact meaningful, long-lasting social change.; TEL: 314.354.8236 / EMAIL: INFO@LEADSTL.ORG; PO Box 63125 St. Louis, MO 63163; Thanks for submitting!

Scraped text from their about page of their website: Titles: Alumni | LEAD STL | St. Louis MO USA

Headings: Who We Are; Our Mission; Our Vision and Tactics; Our Story; Our Alumni Say

Paragraphs: HOME; ABOUT; PROGRAMS; COMMUNITY; SUPPORT; APPLY; CONTACT; ALUMNI; More; 100% of Young Leaders Receive Scholarships; Nearly 90% of alumni indicate that after graduating from our programs they continue to use the skills they learned to address social justice issues.; Students who have seen an increase in their value to contribute to the community; Over 300 Young Leaders Served Annually; Founded in 2004 by Karen Kalish, Cultural Leadership has been at the forefront of fostering social change and empowering the next generation of leaders. As we celebrate our significant growth-including serving ten times the number of students compared to our early years-we are thrilled to announce our rebrand as LEAD STL. This new name embodies our unwavering commitment to Leadership, Empathy, Advocacy, and Diversity, while marking an exciting evolution in our mission. In 2023, we are serving 310 students, compared to an average of 30 annually since our inception. Our programs, partnerships, and regional footprint have expanded, but our core mission to equip individuals with the tools to confront inequity and injustice remains as strong as ever. LEAD STL is the next chapter in our journey towards creating a more equitable and inclusive community.; To empower social change in Greater St. Louis through immersive learning and empathy building.; Rooted in the strengths and oppressions of the Black and Jewish experiences, key methodologies include: exploring activism through art, mentorship, experiential learning, and participant-led advocacy projects.; ; We work to eradicate oppression in a divisive world by;; Developing leaders and changemakers; Connecting youth via immersive educational programming; Building cross-cultural understanding through humility; Welcoming diverse allies & partners; Camille S., Camp Alumna; TEL: 314.354.8236 / EMAIL: INFO@LEADSTL.ORG; PO Box 63125 St. Louis, MO 63163; Thanks for submitting!

Scraped text from their mission page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Scraped text from their history page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Summaries of Links: Based solely on the information provided, it can be inferred that this organization is called LEAD STL. The organization appears to be focused on cultural leadership and has a variety of programs, including a Cultural Leadership Institute, Executive Coaching, and a Summer Camp. The organization also has a blog, resources, and opportunities for internships, volunteering, and partnerships. Additionally, they have a presence on social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn. The organization's contact information includes a phone number, email address, and physical address in Aliso Viejo, California. However, it is important to note that this information is limited and may not provide a comprehensive understanding of the organization's activities, goals, or impact."""