

""Twitter handle (and profile name): conflictandkids (Kids Managing Conflict)

Twitter description: Our Mission: To support and promote programs in K-12 schools that teach students conflict management skills to enrich their lives into adulthood.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "The mission of Kids Managing Conflict is too support and promote programs in K-12 schools that teach students conflict management skills to enrich their lives into adulthood. Our vision is to build a more peaceful society by having the benefits of mediation so clearly understood by the public that it becomes the preferred conflict resolution process for disputes of all kinds. We work toward that goal by supporting peer mediator education so that people can learn the skills and benefits of peaceful conflict resolution at early ages."

Scraped text from their home page of their website: Titles: Kids Managing Conflict - Resolving Disputes & Promoting Peace

Headings: Teaching Our Youth to Resolve Disputes & Promote Peace; Make a Difference; Resolving Conflict; Kids Managing Conflict; 2022 Highlights

Paragraphs: Make a difference by donating money to a cause that resonates with you. Every contribution, no matter the size, plays a crucial role in creating positive change in our youth. Let's create a brighter future for all; Welcome to Kids Managing Conflict, a non-profit organization dedicated to empowering young minds throughout Southern California. We believe that teaching conflict resolution and peer mediation to students from Kindergarten through 12th grade not only fosters a culture of compassion and empathy but also equips these future leaders with essential life skills. By engaging kids in these transformative programs, we lay the foundation for better communication, stronger relationships, and a more peaceful world.; Join us in nurturing the next generation's ability to navigate disagreements peacefully, promoting empathy, understanding, and cooperation, and setting them on a path to become compassionate, confident problem-solvers. Together, we shape a brighter future for our children and communities.; Peer mediation, a powerful conflict resolution tool, benefits schools in various ways. It equips students with vital communication skills, promoting open dialogue and active listening. Trained peer mediators offer a safe space for their peers to address conflicts, fostering empathy and understanding.; Kids Managing Conflict has been finding ways to bring dispute resolution tools to students since 2007, and will continue to support youth that want to resolve conflicts peacefully.; Thanks to your unwavering support, our programs flourished, empowering countless young minds with valuable conflict resolution skills. Together, we reached new heights in spreading awareness about the importance of peaceful conflict resolution among children. Thank you!; Kids Managing Conflict is a 501(c)(3) and the charitable and educational arm of the Southern California Mediation Association (SCMA) - California's premier professional society for mediators.; GuideStar

Scraped text from their about page of their website: Titles: About Us - Kids Managing Conflict

Headings: About Us; Our Mission; Teaching Our Youth to Resolve Disputes & Promote Peace; TRAIN; CREATE; PROVIDE; President's Message

Paragraphs: To support and promote peer mediation programs in K-12 schools that teach students conflict management skills and enrich their lives into adulthood.; Kids Managing Conflict has been finding ways to bring dispute resolution tools to students since 2007, and will continue to support youth that want to resolve conflicts peacefully. In just the last 10 years, KMC has been able to provide 41 California schools with $115,000 in grants.; students with the same skill sthat professional mediators use; a structure for an on-campus Peer Mediation Program; tools that highlight positive changes to their environment; With such an impressive mediation portfolio, it's surprising to hear KMC's President, Anne Sawyer tell us her mediation career began "totally by accident"; Kids Managing Conflict is a 501(c)(3) and the charitable and educational arm of the Southern California Mediation Association (SCMA) - California's premier professional society for mediators.; GuideStar

Scraped text from their mission page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Scraped text from their history page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Summaries of Links: Based solely on the provided information, it can be inferred that this organization is dedicated to promoting conflict resolution and peer mediation among children and young people. The organization has a strong online presence with social media accounts, a website, and a YouTube channel, suggesting that it actively engages with its target audience. The organization also offers resources, grants, and training opportunities, indicating its commitment to supporting educators and community members in implementing peer mediation programs. Furthermore, the organization's partnerships with other organizations and its focus on events and outreach suggest that it collaborates with various stakeholders to achieve its mission."""