Headings: About; Peace Action of Wisconsin's Mission Statement

Paragraphs: Our Story; In March, 1977, we were founded as the Mobilization for Survival. We were part of a national network of 125 national peace, environmental and justice networks. We also opposed nuclear weapons and power and called for an end to the arms race. We supported groups working toward social justice and to move military spending to fund human needs.; In January, 1996, we allied with National Peace Action which formed out of the Sane/Nuclear Freeze movement that advocated for end testing of atomic weapons and their abolition. It's one of the largest grassroots peace and disarmament group in the country. In 1999, we became Peace Action WI. For many years we had 2 branches, Peace Action WI that could do political work and also the Peace Education Project of Peace Action WI for educational work.; In November, 2019, our membership voted to merge the 2 groups to become Peace Action of Wisconsin, with a focus on organizing community involvement to oppose war and peace education.; Current Activities; In 2023, we moved from our location in Riverwest to the Zao Church, 2319 E Kenwood Blvd, Milwaukee, WI 53211. We maintain an office there and many of our events are there.; The organization is guided by the Steering Committee of Peace Action of WI. We are a 501(C) 3 community organization, that is kept alive by scores of volunteers and donations from our members.; We have a website with updates on peace and justice issues and an online calendar. We sponsor speakers, films, and community meetings that focus on ending militarism and for social justice. We publish the Mobilizer Newsletter bi-monthly, visit elected representatives to discuss peace and foreign policy issues, help coordinate the weekly Stand for Peace and host the End the Wars Coalition. We call for demonstrations to oppose US wars of aggression. We're committed to the principles of nonviolence as a strategy to solve problems of war, human rights abuse, inequality and war.; Zao Church Milwaukee; 2319 E Kenwood Blvd; Milwaukee, WI 53211; Our Office # is the same: 414-269-9525; We are across the street from the UW-Milwaukee Union, at Zao Church, once known as the United Methodist Church, on Kenwood boulevard, between Farwell and Prospect.
