

""Twitter handle (and profile name): paths2peacelou (Interfaith Peace)

Twitter description: Louisville-based nonprofit offering education, programs & events to promote peace, human rights, and justice through enhancing interfaith dialogue.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "Interfaith Paths to Peace (IPP) is a grassroots community peacemaking organization. IPP was established in 1996 and has been serving the community for over 20 years with a mission of bringing people of different faiths, cultures, and philosophies together for the purpose of interfaith understanding and social justice based on the principles of peace and respect for one another. IPP does this mainly through the three pathways of educating, peacemaking, and collaborating. IPP's events enable collaboration among local organizations and within communities, thus developing the powerful ingredient of open interfaith dialogue in the peace-building process. Through dialogue, music, walks, vigils, and face-to-face discussions, IPP engages the community and surrounding regions in forms that influence a genuine appreciation of local faiths and cultures."

Scraped text from their home page of their website: Titles: Interfaith Paths to Peace

Headings: Welcome to _x000D_

Interfaith Paths to Peace; Educating; Collaborating; Peacemaking; Peacemaking; Collaborating; Peacemaking; Collaborating; Collaborating; Collaborating; join our newsletter

Paragraphs: Signed in as;; filler@godaddy.com; Sign out; Signed in as;; filler@godaddy.com; Account; Sign out; Interfaith Paths to Peace is a grassroots 501c3 organization; focused on violence reduction, racial equity, and cross-cultural peacebuilding.; Since our beginnings in 1996, we have served the community of Louisville, Kentucky through initiatives that unite and organize people of diverse faiths, races, cultures,; and traditions to create a more just society in which we all get to experience wellbeing.; We center our work on community organizing, collaboration, consulting, and_x000D_

education, and are are committed to uplifting marginalized voices and communities. IPP's Board of Directors includes community; leaders from diverse backgrounds, faiths, races, and cultures.; Together, working for peace!; Educational programs to; build a better world; for future generations; Events that foster peace, understanding, and cooperation in our community; Connecting individuals and organizations to engage; in social change; "Art of Inclusion" Pyramid Award Recipient; presented by the Center for Nonprofit Excellence 2017; Louisville, KY (Historic Portland) | 502-214-7322; to optimize your experience and improve our site. By accepting, your data will be aggregated with all other user data.

Scraped text from their about page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Scraped text from their mission page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Scraped text from their history page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Summaries of Links: Based solely on the information provided, it can be inferred that this organization is likely focused on promoting peace and understanding. The presence of sections such as "our-work," "our-team," "annual-events," "get-involved," and "donate" suggests that the organization is actively engaged in its mission. The inclusion of specific initiatives like the "Peacebuilders Academy," "Crosscultural Initiatives," and "KY Interfaith Network" further indicates a commitment to fostering peace and dialogue among diverse groups. Additionally, the presence of social media links and a subscription option suggests that the organization is actively seeking to engage with the public and expand its reach.""