

""Twitter handle (and profile name): StridesForPeace (Strides for Peace)

Twitter description: Our vision is a Chicago where all can thrive and live free of the fear of gun violence.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "Founded in 2014 by Margaret Bazckowski, Strides for Peace is a registered 501(c)(3) which envisions a Chicago where all can thrive and live free of the fear of gun violence. Our mission is to increase the collective impact of community organizations working to end gun violence, save lives and build a stronger Chicago. Our Community Partners and Affiliates are the cornerstones of their communities and share the common goal of ending gun violence. Strides for Peace supports existing programs while building an infrastructure for new collaboration and capacity building. We are on a mission and need your help. We hope you'll join us, because every stride counts."

Scraped text from their home page of their website: Titles: Strides for Peace - Connect. Commit. Contribute. Change. Be part of building peace.

Headings: Chicago's Inaugural Gun Violence Prevention Expo; Level-Up Luncheon; Check out the Strides for Peace Community Calendar; Choose Hope Film Screening; #LetsTalkAboutPeace; #ChooseHope; #WhyIRun; ; ; Recent News

Paragraphs: The goal of the Expo is to serve as a vehicle that harnesses the collective impact of community organizations and service providers to bridge gaps that exist in accessibility and implementation.; The goal of this annual luncheon is to create institutional-level funding for a single organization with unique potential for lasting impact in the city; See the upcoming Community Partner and Affiliate events and get involved!; Are you a Strides for Peace Community Partner or Affiliate with an upcoming event? Submit your details for inclusion in our calendar here; Strides for Peace is dedicated to increasing the collective impact of nonprofits working to create a Chicago where all can thrive, free from the fear of gun violence. To that end, we work to empower community organizations, promote collaboration and amplify solution-driven dialogue of those on the frontlines of ending gun violence.; We believe that everyone has a stake in ending gun violence and that communities have solutions. Our work is centered around harnessing the power of community organizations and providing new pathways for people who care to get involved.; Beyond every headline are stories of hope, love and resilience. Meet the people who fight for what they love and bring out the best in our city by watching our panel discussion from our 2nd annual Choose Hope Film Screening at the Gene Siskel Film Center featuring Chicago Adventure Therapy, Contextos, Firehouse Community Arts Center, Future Ties and Ring of Hope.; See the ways people are coming together to build peace as we head towards race day!; Community organizations are one of Chicago's greatest assets. Meet the people who choose hope, no matter the odds.; Everyone has a stake in ending gun violence. Hear the stories of people working for a peaceful Chicago; Connect. Commit. Contribute.

Change_x000D_

Be part of building peace.; Help us increase the collective impact of organizations working to end gun violence, and build a Chicago where all can thrive.; 200 West Madison_x000D_

3rd floor_x000D_

Chicago IL 60606312-371-8379; ; Strides for Peace is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Contributions are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law.; (C) 2023 Strides for Peace. All Rights Reserved.

Scraped text from their about page of their website: Titles: About - Strides for Peace

Headings: Who We Are; Vision; Mission; Our Core Values; Equitable Partnerships; Trusted Relationships; Lived Experience; Better Together; Open Doors; Change; Our Strategy; History; ; Recent News

Paragraphs: Strides for Peace envisions a Chicago where all can thrive and live free of the fear of gun violence.; Our mission is to increase the collective impact of community organizations working to end gun violence, save lives and build a stronger Chicago.; We believe that everyone has a stake in ending gun violence and that communities have the answers. Our work is centered around harnessing the power of community organizations and providing new pathways for people who care to get involved.; We believe true partnerships are ones where there is shared power and mutual benefit. Our community partners are our north star.; We believe that making structural change requires relationships with the people and communities most impacted and the engagement of diverse stakeholders.; We believe an understanding of our problems and their attending solutions must include the strategic insights gained from people most impacted and those with boots on the ground, responsible for street level implementation.; We believe that to end gun violence we must invest in collaboration, lead with what we share in common and learn from each other.; We believe to end gun violence we must meet people where they are and offer new ways to deepen their understanding and engagement.; We believe change is not an intellectual exercise but a human experience. Love, trust, and hope are essential ingredients of change.; Our strategy is founded on the understanding that community organizations and grassroots leaders are one of our city's greatest assets, but too often are left out of decision- and policy-making, resulting in approaches and narratives that miss opportunities for impact, equity and change. We view these structural exclusions as creating investment and proximity gaps, and our work is centered on closing these gaps by providing funding, field development, advocacy and civic engagement opportunities.; Strides for Peace was founded by Maggie Baczkowski in 2014. Concerned by rising gun violence, and compelled by the tragic death of Blair Holt, Maggie took action. She started by reaching out to community organizations and grassroots leaders and asking them what they needed to be effective in the fight against gun violence. Today, our work is centered on this fundamental premise that communities have the solutions to ending gun violence and we need to follow their lead.; Connect. Commit. Contribute. Change._x000D_

Be part of building peace.; 200 West Madison_x000D_

3rd floor_x000D_

Chicago IL 60606312-371-8379; ; Strides for Peace is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Contributions are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law.; (C) 2023 Strides for Peace. All Rights Reserved.

Scraped text from their mission page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Scraped text from their history page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Summaries of Links: Based solely on the information provided, it can be inferred that this organization is called Strides for Peace. It appears to be a non-profit organization focused on promoting peace and understanding. The organization has a website with various pages dedicated to its mission, leadership, community partners, investment, storytelling, advocacy, bridge-building, news, resources, race, sponsorship, and contact information. The website also includes links to social media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Vimeo, and Instagram. Additionally, the organization has a phone number and email address for inquiries. While the specific activities and programs of the organization cannot be determined from the provided information, it is evident that Strides for Peace aims to create a positive impact in its community and beyond.""