Twitter description: Founded 1909, the NAACP is the nation's first and largest grassroots-based civil rights organization. Over 2,200 volunteer-run branches nationwide.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "Founded in 1909 in response to the ongoing violence against Black people around the country, the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People) is the largest and most pre-eminent civil rights organization in the nation. We have over 2,200 units and branches across the nation, along with well over 2M activists. Our mission is to secure the political, educational, social, and economic equality of rights in order to eliminate race-based discrimination and ensure the health and well-being of all persons. The vision of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is to ensure a society in which all individuals have equal rights without discrimination based on race. This unit has been included in the resource map as an expansion of a local chapter (NAACP Ambler Branch - Unit #2248), which is a member of the #ListenFirst Coalition. This unit is a part of the NAACP Kentucky State Conference. This data is shared by permission of the NAACP National HQ."
