Twitter description: Millions of Conversations transcends divides by bringing Americans together around common values for a shared future. #PledgeToListen

Description of the organization from a third party source: "Millions of Conversations is a media driven campaign designed to change existing narratives that marginalize and politicize the other." Starting with the predominating narrative about Muslim-Americans, our focus is on eliminating stigma in all its forms. Millions of Conversations promotes positivity and inclusion by combating misinformation, harmful stereotypes, and bigotry both online and offline. By bridging divides and disrupting cycles of fear, we see change happening daily as we engage diverse voices at the grassroots level and use a range of media to reach people across America."

Paragraphs: Headquartered in the Southern heartland, Nashville, Tennessee, we envision a future for our country where every American feels safe and free to be themselves. In essence, this is how we realize peace through fostering a sense of belonging. The process and principles of Truth and Reconciliation serve as a foundation to our mission, vision, and action. Through years of extensive research, subject matter expertise, and global practice, Millions of Conversations developed a strategic theory of change that combines national media engagement with grassroots organizing to peace build, resolve conflict, heal divides, and strengthen democracy in America.; Millions of Conversations exposes and counters currents of mis- and disinformation that can lead to fear, hate, and violence. We challenge narratives that stigmatize our fellow Americans, disrupt intolerance before it takes root, and help heal communities so that all Americans may experience a sense of belonging. With conflict mediation practices, we reach and connect with people who are vulnerable to messaging that perpetuates moderate to strongly intolerant beliefs about one or more marginalized groups. Our work is realized through a robust partnership ecosystem; foundational research on messaging and messengers that resonate with everyday Americans; comprehensive media campaigns that disrupt mis- and disinformation; and dynamic programming that engages, educates, and trains all Americans on how to work collectively through MoC's Steps to Sustainable Peace.; Contact Us.; Privacy Policy.; Copyrights (C) 2024 All Rights Reserved by Millions of Conversations.
