The Paris Climate Agreement, agreed in 2016 by every country in the world, commits every country to take every possible step necessary to reduce carbon emissions. These, and many other treaties and agreements, represent the overwhelming consensus of world public opinion on what can and must be done to save this planet.; ; NuclearBan.US is committed to using the Nuclear Ban Treaty and the Paris Climate Agreement as tools to educate people across the US to support nuclear weapons abolition and a Green New Deal. In particular, our Treaty Compliance Campaign is about getting individuals, businesses, faith communities, schools, organizations, cities and states to work towards 'complying' with these international agreements, by disconnecting and divesting, as far as possible, from both fossil fuels and the nuclear weapons industry. We are calling this "Treaty Alignment" and it sends a powerful message: The age of nuclear weapons and fossil fuels is now over, and we must move on to a different way of relating to the rest of the world and to the planet.; ; L-R: Former NuclearBan.US Campaign Coordinator, Lydia Wood, and Creative Director, Vicki Elson, with US Congressman Jim McGovern and Laura Britton, Legislative Aid to State Rep.
