

""Twitter handle (and profile name): oasisnashville (Oasis Center)

Twitter description: Providing services to over 3,500 youth and their families-from crisis intervention to youth leadership and community engagement to college and career access.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "In 1969, a group of young lawyers came together to establish the Rap House, a simple community center for runaway teens and youth struggling with addictions. Nearly 50 years later, the Rap House has evolved into Oasis Center, where over 3,000 youth and families turn for help and direct support every year. Oasis Center provides a wide range of opportunities that reflect the diverse needs of youth and their families, from crisis intervention to youth leadership and community engagement to college and career access. Our nearly 20 programs and services are based on the foundation of four areas for youth success Safety, Belonging, Empowerment, and Generosity. All of our work is also firmly rooted in the evidence-based principles of Positive Youth Development and Trauma-Informed Care."

Scraped text from their home page of their website: Titles: Youth Crisis Intervention, Community Engagement, & More | Oasis Center

Headings: "Youth can do a lot of really powerful and important things. We just need people to believe in us."_x000D_

x000D

Donate; YOUTH. COMMUNITY. ACTION.; For Youth; Learn More; Volunteer; News & Events; Celebrate Nashville; Mayor's Youth Summit 2023; Oasis College Connection; Only in Nashville; Get In Touch; Call Us; 24/7 Crisis Services; Sign up for Our Newsletter; Newsletter Sign-up Form

Paragraphs: Located in Nashville, Oasis Center is a nationally-recognized organization on a mission to help young people in Middle Tennessee move into a happy, healthy, and productive adulthood. Every year, we engage over 4,000 youth and families across a broad spectrum of programs and services designed to help them reach their full potential.; Our Mission_x000D_

Building relationships that advance youth well-being, amplify youth voice, and inspire action toward a just community.; Our Philosophy_x000D_

Rather than viewing youth as passive recipients, we see them as full stakeholders who hold the keys to addressing some of the most challenging problems facing our city, including violence reduction, improved graduation rates, bullying prevention, discrimination, intolerance, and more.; By giving your time, you teach our youth something important, they are never alone.; By giving your time, you teach our youth something important, they are never alone.; By giving your time, you teach our youth something important, they are never alone.; Come visit us on October 7 at the Teens United area at Celebrate Nashville! The area is organized by members ...; Hey Nashville youth! Join us for the annual Mayor's Youth Summit on Wednesday, October 4, at the Martin Profe...; Did you know that in the 2022-2023 academic year alone, Oasis College Connection (OCC) helped 2,003 students ...; It's almost time for Oasis Center's biggest event of the year - Only in Nashville! On November 4, we'll be br...; Oasis Center; 1704 Charlotte Avenue, Suite 200; Nashville, TN 37203; Crisis Services (24/7); 615-327-4455; Main Office (9am-5pm); 615-327-4455; Oasis Center is dedicated to supporting and improving the lives of youth in Middle Tennessee. If you or someone you know is in a crisis, call 615.327.4455 for immediate assistance.

Scraped text from their about page of their website: Titles: About Oasis | Oasis Center

Headings: "The people at Oasis are very kind and educating. They have truly opened my eyes about college and about life."_x000D_

x000D

Donate; Built on the powerful belief that there's more to youth.; Judy; Judy Freudenthal; Alexuss; Alexuss; Natica; Natica; Judy Freudenthal; Alexuss; Natica; Youth Opportunity Center; Our Programs; Bike Workshop; Counseling; Emergency Shelter; Just Us; Mayor's Youth Council; Oasis College Connection; Rapid Rehousing; Reaching Excellence As Leaders (REAL); Street Outreach Program; Underground Art Studio at Oasis; WeGo Public Transit Youth Action Team; International Teen Outreach Program(R) (ITOP(R)); Statewide Training and Development; Leadership; President & CEO; Chief Operating Officer; Vice President of Action, Advocacy & Education; Vice President of Housing & Workforce Development; Senior Director, School-based Programs; Senior Director, Youth Action & Advocacy; Senior Director, Shelter & Youth Diversion; Senior Director of Development; Director of Outreach Services; Director of Grants; Director of Just Us; Director of Human Resources; Director of Permanent Housing; Statewide TOP Training Director; Director of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion; Director of Clinical Services; Get In Touch; Call Us; 24/7 Crisis Services; Sign up for Our Newsletter; Newsletter Sign-up Form

Paragraphs: In 1969, a group of young lawyers came together to establish the "Rap House," a simple community center for runaway teens and youth struggling with addictions. Fifty years later, the "Rap House" has evolved into Oasis Center, where nearly 3,500 youth and families turn for help and direct support every year. Oasis Center provides a wide range of opportunities that reflect the diverse needs of youth and their families, from crisis intervention to youth leadership and community engagement to college and career access.; Our 20+ programs and services are based on the foundation of four areas for youth success - Safety, Belonging, Empowerment, and Generosity. All of our work is also firmly rooted in the evidence-based principles of Positive Youth Development and Trauma-Informed Care.; If you know Oasis, you likely know Judy. Over her 40-year career at Oasis - starting at the

"Rap House" - Judy has continually helped our programs evolve and become models in the field of positive youth development. Her unending responsibility to our young people, who help us grow and "get it right," is at the center of Oasis today. So, what keeps her here? "The people, the spirit, the privilege to be part of something remarkable. Anyone can tell you the finest people come through our doors."; Alexuss has a reputation around Oasis for being the "glue that keeps a group together." Although her path hasn't always been easy, she is a leader- in every sense of the word. She came to us in 2011 when life was beginning to take its toll. In 2015, she took part in Camp AnyTown where Oasis staff recognized her potential and referred her to the Mayor's Youth Council. This past year, Alexuss was awarded a Presidential Scholarship and will be attending TSU with plans to go to law school.; "Yeah I did this!" Natica's zest for life is contagious and he is unstoppable! In 8th grade, he had a vivid dream, one that inspired him to write . . . and write . . . and write. As a senior, he wrote 6 books, self-published 3, and currently has a screenplay underway! Natica credits Venture with helping him to expand his vision, identify his next steps, and market his work. He's attending Murray State University as a Theater Major. You did it, Natica!; If you know Oasis, you likely know Judy. Over her 40-year career at Oasis - starting at the "Rap House" - Judy has continually helped our programs evolve and become models in the field of positive youth development. Her unending responsibility to our young people, who help us grow and "get it right," is at the center of Oasis today. So, what keeps her here? "The people, the spirit, the privilege to be part of something remarkable. Anyone can tell you the finest people come through our doors."; Alexuss has a reputation around Oasis for being the "glue that keeps a group together." Although her path hasn't always been easy, she is a leader- in every sense of the word. She came to us in 2011 when life was beginning to take its toll. In 2015, she took part in Camp AnyTown where Oasis staff recognized her potential and referred her to the Mayor's Youth Council. This past year, Alexuss was awarded a Presidential Scholarship and will be attending TSU with plans to go to law school.; "Yeah I did this!" Natica's zest for life is contagious and he is unstoppable! In 8th grade, he had a vivid dream, one that inspired him to write . . . and write . . . and write. As a senior, he wrote 6 books, self-published 3, and currently has a screenplay underway! Natica credits Venture with helping him to expand his vision, identify his next steps, and market his work. He's attending Murray State University as a Theater Major. You did it, Natica!; What if youth could meet all of their needs in one place? That's the vision for the Youth Opportunity Center, a shared building collaboration between Oasis and five youth-serving agencies.; The lives of our young people are complex. Supporting their transition to a healthy, productive adulthood can't happen through singular support. Oasis offers a broad spectrum of programs to help young people find their strengths, use their skills, and break down the barriers that keep them from success.; Youth not only build their own bike - they build the confidence and ability to explore beyond their neighborhood; Working with youth and families to improve happiness and well-being; A short-term residential program helping youth ages 13-17 and their families address crisis situations; Dedicated to helping LGBTQ teens be their authentic selves in environments of safety and acceptance; Lending the power of youth voice to the Mayor's Office on our city's most pressing challenges; Dedicated to improving college access and success outcomes for young people across Nashville; Rental assistance and supports to get youth housed quickly, safely, and permanently.; Helping youth build stronger communities and a positive future; Providing a wide range of support for youth ages 18-24 who are experiencing homelessness; Nurturing creative pathways for healing, self-exploration, and creating positive community change; A group of young leaders working with WeGo Public Transit to identify and improve key transit issues for youth.; Engaging youth in service-learning to build healthy behaviors, life skills, and a sense of purpose; In partnership with Department of Children's Services, we're working to reshape the futures of youth in state care.; After spending eight years in university athletics, Mark moved back to Nashville in 2010 and jumped at the opportunity to join Oasis. For 10 years, Mark headed up our development team and special projects to advance our strategic goals. He is particularly serious about his BBQ recipe, hot chicken, and craft beer.; Shanda began her Oasis career working in the Emergency Shelter. In her current role, these roots help her build a workplace culture filled with fun, compassion, and growth. She loves to spend time with family. She's also a bit of a football fanatic (Go Bucks!) and dreams of becoming a college football commentator.; A community- and relationship-builder, Jenn consistently instills these qualities in our YEA programs and the teens we serve. Jenn loves camping out with family and physical activities, but she's never far from public service. In her spare time, she serves on Metro Parks' Board and works the polls each Election Day.; ; With an infectious "can do" attitude, Lee has dedicated his career to improving postsecondary outcomes for youth. After focusing on retention at his alma mater Beloit College, Lee came to us to head up College Connection. A former college soccer player, Lee shares his passion these days rooting for his nephews.; Pam left her successful career in the corporate world in 2010 to pursue a pressing challenge - to help LGBTQI youth reach their full potential. Since then, she has helped catapult the "Just Us" program into one of Tennessee's leading resources for LGBTQ youth, their families, and youth providers across the state.; ; Dana moved from her native homeland in California to Nashville in 2012. In addition to enjoying a long and diverse career in education as a teacher and administrator, she worked 10 years for a private grant writing and evaluation firm. She loves going for long drives with her wife and her pup, Baxter.; Courtney began her career at Oasis working directly with youth in our Supportive Housing Program, then as Supportive Housing Manager before transitioning to her current role. She enjoys hiking with her pups, weightlifting, and gardening. She is proud to be part of the Oasis team supporting and uplifting young people.; ; Kanisha learned of Oasis as a teen, later serving on the Youth Innovation Board then Youth United. She has 8 years of corporate and nonprofit HR experience. She loves working out, sip & paints, and taking care of her 9-month-old son. She is honored to be back in the community that gave her life, hope, and opportunity.; Before joining Oasis, Alyssa served as a Regional Director in a foster care organization, and prior to that as a case manager and therapist with several Nashville nonprofits. She has an MSW from UT and a certificate in Intrapreneurship from eCornell. She enjoys reading, cooking, movies, and hanging out with her dogs.; Jonna has over 40 years of experience inspiring youth success through service learning and leadership development. She has been a certified TOP Trainer at Oasis for nearly 23 years, providing hands-on training, monitoring, and coaching to staff working with youth in residential and juvenile justice sites across Tenn.; Nicole started at Oasis in 2011 and recently became

Director of DEI. She is passionate about creating a community that is supportive, inclusive, and safe for everyone and is committed to bringing trust and awareness of all cultures, identities, and obstacles they currently and historically face in our society.; Kristi is a dedicated social worker who served as the Director of Mental Health for the TN Department of Education for 3 years before coming to Oasis. Prior to that, she worked to assist families in various social service settings for 20 years. In her free time, she loves to travel and spend time with family.; Oasis Center; 1704 Charlotte Avenue, Suite 200; Nashville, TN 37203; Crisis Services (24/7); 615-327-4455; Main Office (9am-5pm); 615-327-4455; Oasis Center is dedicated to supporting and improving the lives of youth in Middle Tennessee. If you or someone you know is in a crisis, call 615.327.4455 for immediate assistance.

Scraped text from their mission page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Scraped text from their history page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Summaries of Links: Based solely on the provided information, it can be inferred that this organization is called the Oasis Center and it is located in Nashville. The organization's website address is <https://oasiscenter.org>. The organization has a presence on social media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. The organization appears to focus on youth and volunteer involvement, as evident from the sections on the website dedicated to these topics. There is also a section for donations, indicating that the organization relies on financial support from the community. The organization also has a section dedicated to career opportunities, suggesting that it employs individuals. Additionally, there are sections on accountability and outcomes, which may indicate that the organization values transparency and measures its impact. Overall, the information provided suggests that the Oasis Center is a community-oriented organization that engages with youth, volunteers, and the broader community in Nashville."""