Paragraphs: But too often, barriers of all kinds stand in the way of people realizing their potential. By supporting and inspiring social entrepreneurs, we empower the people who break these barriers so that every person can live a life of meaning and purpose.; We support social entrepreneurs across society working in education, communities, business, and government. We do this by supporting applied research that turns great ideas into practical solutions and investing in projects that demonstrate new and better ways to tackle the root causes of our country's biggest problems.; Stand Together Trust was founded by Charles Koch, a Forbes Top-25 philanthropist and CEO of the largest private company in America. Charles built his business from the bottom up. A student of history and the philosophy of science, he saw that a top-down, one-size-fits-all approach stifles people from innovating and holds back progress. He chose a better way: Empowering employees to work together to solve the problems closest to them. The combination of their individual actions created one of the greatest success stories in American history. Stand Together Trust is built on that same principle.; Charles holds two master's degrees in nuclear and chemical engineering from MIT and lives in Wichita, Kansas, with his wife, Liz. A New York Times bestselling author, his most recent book is Believe in People: Bottom-up Solutions for a Top-down World.; Stand Together Trust is part of a broader philanthropic community that helps America's boldest changemakers tackle the root causes of our country's biggest problems - driving solutions on education, economic opportunity, health care, bridging partisan divides, and dozens of other pressing issues. Stand Together helps partners transform their results by accessing capabilities including funding, tapping into a unique network including Fortune 50 CEOs, civil rights leaders, and hundreds of nonprofit leaders, and utilizing a playbook for applying principles that are proven to help people thrive.; Stand Together Trust 2022 Form 990-PF; Stand Together Trust 2021 Form 990-PF; Stand Together Trust 2020 Form 990-PF
