

""Twitter handle (and profile name): PamelaWhitmore (Pamela Whitmore)

Twitter description: Wife. Mom. Collaborator. Lawyer. Fan of local government. Interested in Closing Divides. Gardener. Avid Reader. Tweets my own.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "Pamela Whitmore is the Collaboration & Mediation Manager for the League of Minnesota Cities where she works with member cities who are experiencing conflict or need assistance working collaboratively."

Scraped text from their home page of their website: Titles: Home - League of Minnesota Cities

Headings: City Council; Finance; City Administration; Human Resources; Public Safety and Health; Public Works; Community Development; Small City Center; Claims; Coverages; Loss Control; About the Trust; LMCIT Member Center; For Insurance Agents; Legislative Policies; Law Summaries; How to Advocate; Federal Relations; Appointments; Upcoming Events; Online Learning; Previous Events; Customized Learning; News; Publications; Promoting excellence in local government.; News; Fill your skills toolbox and connect at the Elected Leaders Institute.; Upcoming Events; Free Webinar: 2024 Legislative Session Preview; 2024 Elected Leaders Institute; City Day on the Hill; Publications

Paragraphs: FAQs: Earned Sick and Safe Time Law; Effective Jan. 1, 2024, Minnesota's earned sick and safe time (ESST) law, requires employers to provide earned sick and safe paid leave to employees who work in Minnesota.; Small City Center; Resources and information specifically targeted at cities with populations under 2,500.; PTSD and Mental Health Toolkit; This toolkit was created to help our members address issues of public safety mental health and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD).; Local Taxes Advisory Task Force Hears Public Testimony; Application Now Open for U of M Empowering Small Minnesota Communities Program; Happy New - Data Practices - Year!; See the Latest News; Choose from the Foundational Program, designed for newly elected officials, or the Advanced Program, which helps elected officials with over two years of experience take their leadership skills to the next level.; Minnesota Cities Magazine; January-February 2024; Cities Bulletin Newsletter; Stay up to date on legislative news, as well as other important information with this free e-newsletter.; Minnesota Mayors Handbook; This handy reference provides the foundational information you need to be a successful mayor.; Handbook for Minnesota Cities; This is your comprehensive resource for laws affecting Minnesota city governments.; HR Reference Manual; Get extensive information and guidance for human resources issues in the public sector.; See All Publications; (C) Copyright 2024 League of Minnesota Cities 145 University Ave. W, Saint Paul, MN 55103-2044 Phone: (651) 281-1200 | Toll-Free: (800) 925-1122 This site runs like Clockwork.

Scraped text from their about page of their website: Titles: About the League - League of Minnesota Cities

Headings: City Council; Finance; City Administration; Human Resources; Public Safety and Health; Public Works; Community Development; Small City Center; Claims; Coverages; Loss Control; About the Trust; LMCIT Member Center; For Insurance Agents; Legislative Policies; Law Summaries; How to Advocate; Federal Relations; Appointments; Upcoming Events; Online Learning; Previous Events; Customized Learning; News; Publications; About the League; How to save a PDF; Still not sure?; About the League section navigation; Your LMC Resource; Is there a national organization of cities?; Our mission; Our vision; What is a municipal league?; League intergovernmental relations; History of the League; How many cities are there in Minnesota and how many of them are League members?; Learn more about League members; Your LMC Resource; Is there a national organization of cities?

Paragraphs: If you would like to save the page you're viewing as a PDF document, here are the steps;; View additional instructions for the most common browsers.; League staff members are experts on a wide variety of city issues. Have a question? We'll help you get the answer!; Connect with League staff; Yes. The National League of Cities is located at 660 N. Capitol St. NW, Suite 450, Washington, DC 20001. NLC's phone number is (202) 626-3000.Learn more at www.nlc.org; The League of Minnesota Cities is a membership association dedicated to promoting excellence in local government. The League, governed by a Board of Directors consisting of local elected and appointed city officials, serves its more than 800 member cities through advocacy, education and training, policy development, risk management, and other services.View the League's 2022-2023 Annual Report (pdf); The League of Minnesota Cities promotes excellence in local government through effective advocacy, expert analysis, and trusted guidance for all Minnesota cities.; We envision a future for Minnesota and the League where;; Read about our core valuesView the League Constitution (pdf); Local government is the highest-functioning, least partisan, and most responsive level of government. The League of Minnesota Cities is one of dozens of independent local government associations in the United States. Like other municipal associations, the League centers common local government values in our work, including stewardship of resources, safety, responsiveness, and transparency.; The League's core philosophy is based on the fundamental principle of local control - that means supporting and advocating for elected officials and the residents they serve to make policy decisions that are right for their own communities. The League supports local decision-making authority and opposes attempts at the state and federal level to interfere with the ability for local elected officials to respond to the needs of residents.; The League of Minnesota Cities considers our policy development process the pillar of our intergovernmental advocacy.; Our work is rooted in the practice of local officials from around the state, representing cities of all sizes. Our policies are shaped by their participation in a rigorous process that occurs annually and brings that experience to the table.; With 855 cities in Minnesota, many under 1,000 in population, advocacy by municipal associations provides policy makers with a knowledgeable, nonpartisan source of information on city operations and the relationship between local, state, and federal jurisdictions. We value the long-standing city-state partnership in Minnesota and strive to maintain robust and constructive communication between cities and state policy makers on issues affecting local communities.; Learn more about the member-driven policy development process here and view the latest City Policies document; The League of Minnesota Cities was founded in 1913 by a special law passed by the Minnesota Legislature. It was initially a part of the Extension Division of the University of Minnesota. In 1974, the League became an independent organization. Today, the League's membership includes cities and their elected and appointed officials, as well as a number of special municipal districts and townships.; There are 855 cities in Minnesota, and 838 cities are members of the League of Minnesota Cities. Eleven townships, one joint powers entity, and 69 special districts are also League members. Read about membership dues rates; Access the Online City Directory to get general information about a city, including street address, office hours, phone, fax, email and website addresses, population, and city council meeting times.; League staff members are experts on a wide variety of city issues. Have a question? We'll help you get the answer!; Connect with League staff; Yes. The National League of Cities is located at 660 N. Capitol St. NW, Suite 450, Washington, DC 20001. NLC's phone number is (202) 626-3000. Learn more at www.nlc.org; (C) Copyright 2024 League of Minnesota Cities 145 University Ave. W, Saint Paul, MN 55103-2044 Phone: (651) 281-1200 | Toll-Free: (800) 925-1122 This site runs like Clockwork.

Scraped text from their mission page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Scraped text from their history page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Summaries of Links: Based solely on the provided information, it can be inferred that this organization is likely a comprehensive resource and advocacy center for cities and local governments in Minnesota. It offers a wide range of resources, including news, publications, events, and training opportunities, as well as advocacy services such as legislative tracking and lobbying. The organization also provides information on city structure, roles and powers, finance, grant opportunities, contracting, fiscal management, expenditures, city administration, human resources, public safety, public works, community development, and economic development. Additionally, the organization offers an insurance trust and loss control services to its members. Overall, this organization appears to be a valuable resource for cities and local governments in Minnesota, providing a wide range of information and services to support their operations and advocacy efforts."""