

""Twitter handle (and profile name): Qideas (Q Ideas)

Twitter description: Stay curious. Think well. Advance good.

Description of the organization from a third party source: "Founded in 2007, Q is a learning community that mobilizes Christians to advance the common good in society. "

Scraped text from their home page of their website: Titles: Home - Q Ideas /Q Ideas

Headings: Culture Summit 2023: Building Resilient Communities; Explore Q Moments; Let Q Be Your Guide Through Complex Cultural Conversations; $7.99/mo.; $49/mo.; $99/mo.; What to Expect When You Subscribe to Q; Curated with Convenience in Mind, Because Your Time Matters; Initiate Important Conversations with Your Family; Expose Your Teams to Biblical Thinking on Current Issues; Inspire Your Friends to Lead Where They've Been Called; Equip Your Entire Church on how to Engage Culture; Courses that Reset Your Thinking and Inspire a Proven Approach to Cultural Change; Start Streaming Now; $7.99/mo.; $49/mo.; $99/mo.

Paragraphs: Subscribe to Receive Q Moments in your inbox;; The Q stands for questions. With a no topic is off limits approach, our thoughtful guides help you navigate the complex intersection of faith and 21st century culture. With our 15+ years of expert interaction, research analysis and commissioned talks on complex cultural issues, we provide you the knowledge and approach to better engage difficult conversations.; Watch Q Moments anytime, anywhere.; Educate yourself to think well about important cultural issues from a biblical worldview. Gain insight into the conversations and ideas shaping our current culture. Lead your family and friends to navigate our complex and confusing cultural moment. (1 User); Educate your staff and key leaders on the most important cultural issues for this moment and the season ahead. Spark meaningful conversations to discover together how you can engage these topics and better lead the people you serve. (10-24 users); Equip and inform the adults and students throughout your church utilizing Q Talks and Courses in small group gatherings and public settings. Provides access to our church-wide culture engagement training and access to the Q national conference. (25+); Access to hundreds of world-class, concise 9 and 18 minute talks delivered by respected thought leaders and change makers on a plethora of topics. From science, theology and the arts, to politics, business, media and education, we've curated the best of Q's library of content and personalized it to your interests. Subscribing to Q will inspire you daily as you gain the insight and courage to lead right where you are.; You are busy being a good leader, friend, colleague, parent and spouse. As the chaos of culture speeds by, Q curates the best thinking on the issues you care about most. Whether listening while on the go or viewing talks on your handheld device, from the living room or the board room, Q is a consistent companion on your journey to think well and advance good.; Do you want to have thoughtful, informed conversations with your children on marijuana, social media, sexuality and other difficult topics? Q serves up the conversation and discussion questions for you. You don't need to be the expert, just the guide as you process openly with your children topics often considered in isolation.; You don't need to be the expert on every difficult subject. With new data, research and content streaming from every direction, Q filters what you need to know and serves it up how it helps you most. You can count on Q to delve into the difficult issues, provide multiple points of view, and help you land on what can be trusted.; If you are a Christian who needs to stay in the know about current culture, Q is your solution. When people trust your opinion, listen to your advice and expect you to be one step ahead of the issues facing them, Q is your trusted repository of relevant content. Encouraging you on how to be a faithful presence right where you have been called is our number one priority.; With 80% of church attenders wishing their pastor would better help them navigate complex social, political and cultural issues, Q can be your partner in your mission to equip and disciple. Through playlists, courses and hundreds of talks on a multitude of topics, we help you facilitate robust conversation and learning throughout your entire church. Whether through small groups or live simulcast events, Q gives you the best in class education your people deserve.; Our video courses provide foundational thinking for any Christian serious about using their talent to faithfully engage culture in their industry or new start up. From entrepreneurship and learning the basics of Christian worldview, to strategies for loving your neighbor well, our simple courses allow you to lead your family, friends or small group to a deeper place of real life application and create the foundations necessary to faithfully engage culture.; Watch Q Moments anytime, anywhere.; Educate yourself to think well about important cultural issues from a biblical worldview. Gain insight into the conversations and ideas shaping our current culture. Lead your family and friends to navigate our complex and confusing cultural moment. (1 User); Educate your staff and key leaders on the most important cultural issues for this moment and the season ahead. Spark meaningful conversations to discover together how you can engage these topics and better lead the people you serve. (10-24 users); Equip and inform the adults and students throughout your church utilizing Q Talks and Courses in small group gatherings and public settings. Provides access to our church-wide culture engagement training and access to the Q national conference. (25+)

Scraped text from their about page of their website: Titles: About - Q Ideas /Q Ideas

Headings: About Q Ideas; Believe; Think; Act; Our Approach; Our Lenses of Culture; Our Offerings; Give to Q; Our Leadership; We're Hiring; In the Media

Paragraphs: Q Ideas is a proven vehicle for building and sustaining a vision for restoring the credibility of the Christian faith in Western culture for new generations. Our long-term goal is to see the Christian faith become increasingly attractive, credible and influential in the church, our communities and the next generation.; By equipping Christian leaders to renew the way they believe, think and act in regard to culture, we can increase the positive and ameliorating effect Christianity has on society.; To restore Christian credibility and influence in Western society, Christian leaders in the Seven Channels of Culture (church, business, education, social sector, arts & entertainment, government and media) must recapture a biblical, three-part framework for engaging the world.; Recover the biblical, cultural mandate, recognizing that the Christian faith invites us to partner with God to renew cultures and restore broken relationships and institutions.; Become the most educated and informed contributors to solutions our friends and society face, seeing the image of God in others, always listening and learning, confident that God's ways lead to a more fruitful, abundant and flourishing life.; Advance Christian love in tangible ways by creating and promoting goods, services and systems that fix injustice, restore God's intention and extend good, truth and beauty in community life.; Q Ideas was founded by Gabe & Rebekah Lyons in 2007 as a platform to help leaders and influencers engage culture from a biblical worldview. Today, we accomplish this mission through media and live events designed for the thoughtful Christian. The "Q" in our name stands for questions, and it comes from the belief that an informed, winsome and theologically faithful approach starts with Christians who seek to understand, learn and grow. Unfortunately, the letter Q has recently become associated with a conspiracy theory and political movement in which we have no affiliation. We existed many years before Q Anon and our work will continue well beyond it.; The Seven Channels of Culture touch every citizen in a society. It is historically proven that when leaders from each channel work together toward a common goal, cultural change is possible.; These six practices have historically guided the faithful in a myriad of ways no matter how the culture looked.; By thoughtfully engaging current issues, we seek to address what is happening in the world and why it matters, so thoughtful leaders can engage today's most pressing topics and difficult conversations from an informed starting point.; Culture Summit - An annual gathering showcasing educational talks by thought leaders and stories from change-makers that inspire and equip Christian leaders for culture-shaping conversations and opportunities in the year ahead.; Q Media - Delivering education and inspiration to a massive network of thoughtful Christians through a robust library of Q's best digital resources, including Q Talks, podcasts, documentaries, films, online learning, and live events.; Consider supporting Q with a monthly or one time gift.; Gabe and Rebekah Lyons founded Q in 2007, a learning community that mobilizes Christians to advance the common good in society. Described as "sophisticated and orthodox" by The New York Times, they convene leaders in America's most influential cities and equip them to engage public life in winsome and thoughtful ways. Gabe is the co-author of Good Faith: Being a Christian When Society Thinks You're Irrelevant and Extreme, author of The Next Christians and co-author of UnChristian: What a New Generation Really Thinks About Christianity and Why It Matters. These books and the numerous writings and events Lyons' hosts are credited with shaping a new imagination for how the Christian church can live faithfully and engage modern times.; Rebekah is a national speaker and bestselling author of Rhythms of Renewal: Trading Stress and Anxiety for a Life of Peace and Purpose, You Are Free: Be Who You Already Are and Freefall to Fly: A Breathtaking Journey Toward a Life of Meaning.; Prior to launching Q, Gabe served on the team that co-founded Catalyst, the largest gathering of young church leaders in America. After seven years of leading the Catalyst movement, he recognized that there was a deep need within the American church for heightened cultural exposure and understanding, Gospel-centered critical thinking, and active collaboration among church leaders who would chart the future of the church in the West. Gabe and Rebekah's work represents the perspectives of a new generation of Christians and has been featured by CNN, The New York Times, Fox News and USA Today. They have four children, and live in Franklin, TN.

Scraped text from their mission page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Scraped text from their history page of their website: Titles: NA

Headings: NA

Paragraphs: NA

Summaries of Links: Based solely on the provided URLs, it can be inferred that Qideas is an organization that focuses on Christian-based content and media. The organization appears to have a strong online presence with multiple websites and social media platforms. They offer various resources such as events, podcasts, videos, and articles on topics related to faith, leadership, business, and personal growth from a Christian perspective. The organization also offers a subscription service for access to exclusive content. Additionally, they have a section dedicated to Qmedia, which seems to be a platform for church leaders to access resources and training. The organization's terms and conditions and privacy policy are also available on their website.""