Twitter description: Founder of The Conversation Collaborative

Description of the organization from a third party source: "I am the co-founder of Occupy Café®, an initiative that supports the global conversation inspired by the Occupy movement, using interactive conference calls, a social networking platform and in-person dialogue. I have been pursuing the intersection of large group conversational processes and the internet's power to convene and to support new modalities for dialogue since February 2010, when I became involved with the Coffee Party movement. From 2010-2011 I also worked extensively on the FOUR YEARS.GO campaign initiated by The Pachamama Alliance to help create a tipping point towards a socially just, environmentally sustainable and spiritually fulfilling world for all. And I was a co-founder of weDialogue, a business offering professional services to design and host virtual engagements and the provider of online services for the World Café® Community Foundation."
